

Life Launch Training

General Questions for Dr. Lara + Johnny Fernandez. [“Lara” is pronounced “Lah-ra”, rhymes with “bar” but has “a” on end, like “tiarra”]

FYI: We LOVE Question & Answer time! So... if we have time for it we'd love to take your callers' questions.

1. How did you get started doing what you are doing now, empowering women in your special way?
2. Why do you think there is so much talk about “soulmates” these days?
3. [flip] Why does there seem to be so much divorce these days?
4. Our audience has lots of entrepreneurial and career minded women [if this is true for you, if not, just start with question from here], shouldn't women be spending their time and resources on more “practical things” rather than on love?
5. Isn't LOVE something that just comes naturally, why love training, preparation, all this teaching – aren't you interfering with the natural process of things unfolding?
6. What do you enjoy most about the work that you do? Is there anything that is frustrating about this work that you do?
7. Do you think there is someone for everyone? More than one person? Why do some people never find their soulmates?
8. A lot of people are using matchmaking services and online dating services to meet people, I've heard you say that it may be a waste of time and money?
9. What kind of women usually work with you and get great results?
10. How can people get started in learning more about what you do and how you can support them? And - last but not least - do you have something else that you can give our viewers/listeners to get them started right away on attracting soulmate love and the life of their dreams?

Bonus Questions: (the answers can be longer to address them properly so only ask if you have plenty of time)

- You work with women on the phone and in person, and get great results both ways, but why do you emphasize the importance of learning with you live and in person?
- Johnny, many women think that men are not really looking for a long term relationship, and they have to be sort of tricked into it - what's your take on that?
- Lara, many women say that all the good ones are already taken, did you ever say that – and what do you say to women who say that now?
- Lara, you say that the women does the magnetizing in the “relationship dance” what does that mean and why should women have to do all the work?
- Johnny, why do you and Lara emphasize the quality of and even the word “commitment” in a lot of the work that you do?
